The Old Confederates At Pewee.

In order that the inmates of the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley may have the pleasure of being present at the annual reunions the Kentucky Division of the United Confederate Veterans have decided to continue the practice of holding the reunions at the Home. The next reunion will be held in September, as the weather is more favorable for outdoor gatherings in that month. The date will be selected by the Commanding General, Col. Bennett H. Young.

Col. Young was re-elected Commander of the Kentucky Division. His election was by acclamation and was greeted with rousing cheers from the delegates and visitors.

With one exception the Brigade Commanders were re-elected. Maj. P. P. Johnson, of Lexington, was chosen Commander of the Fourth Brigade to succeed A. H. Sinclair, of Georgetown.

The Brigade Commanders re-elected were: James R. Rogers, of Paris, First Brigade; J. B. Briggs, of Russellville, Second Brigade, and D. Thornton, of Louisville, Third Brigade.

At a meeting of the delegates from from the camps of the Second Brigade it was decided that hereafter that Brigade will elect its Commander at the time of the Brigade re-union, which is always held during the summer at some city in the western part of the State. The Second Brigade contains more camps than any of the others.

Just preceding the adjournment of the re-union a flag, the gift to the Kentucky Division from the Louisiana Division of the United Confederate Veterans, was brought into the hall and was greeted with cheers.

Hyomei
Cures Catarrh
Breathes it—

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat, and thus kill the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane, and gives complete and permanent cure.

Hyomei is the simplest, most pleasant and the only guaranteed cure for catarrh that has been discovered. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottles, 50 cents.

D. of C. Elect State Officers.

The Daughters of the Confederacy of Kentucky, in session at Bowling Green, Friday afternoon, elected the following officers: President, Mrs. R. H. McKinney, Paducah; First Vice President, Mrs. J. P. Tarvin, Covington; Second Vice President, Mrs. E. B. Roberts, Bardstown; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Murrell, Paducah; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. H. Monogue, Carlisle; Treasurer, Mrs. Maggie Bell Hardin, Elizabethtown; Register, Mrs. Nell Stedman Cox, Frankfort; Historian, Mrs. Mary G. Edmonds, Hopkinsville; Chaplain, Miss Cable Froman, Ghent; Vice Chaplain, Mrs. C. J. Van Meter, Bowling Green.

The most interesting event on the program perhaps was the annual address of Mrs. Basil Duke, the President. She said, among other things: "The past year has been most encouraging. Twelve chapters have been organized within the last two years. Kentucky has responded to all calls coming from outside the State and has made none on other States. Let there be a monument in every place where there is a chapter and in every place where there was a conflict."

She then read a list of over forty engagements that took place in Kentucky, saying that the casual reader hardly appreciated Kentucky's part in the Confederate armies. She urged that records be made of all conflicts, skirmishes, etc., by the chapter nearest the place. She further emphasized the importance of keeping all other records, crosses of honor, etc., and in closing offered her services and experience to her successor.

The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $199.63 in the treasury.

Passenger Train Plunges Through Bridge.

Thirteen were injured when passenger train No. 9, on the Louisville Southern Railroad, containing about thirty passengers, Friday night at 6:50 o'clock plunged through the bridge half a mile west of Elkhurst, which is about seven miles west of Lexington. No one was killed. The tender of the engine, the baggage car, the mail car, and a portion of the smoker are piled up in the bottom of South Elkhorn creek, and the bridge is totally destroyed.

The wreck might have been more serious had it not been for the coolness and excellent judgment of Engineer A. Phillips, who was at the throttle. Engineer Phillips saw that the tender had left the track, and attempted to slow down the train. He did not succeed, and the train was on the bridge before he knew it.

Then he felt the bridge give. He knew that a wreck was imminent. Hoping to make it as slight as possible he put on full steam, trusting to fate to get the train across the bridge before the crash came. His attempt was a failure, for the bridge sank down as the engine reached the east side of the abutments of the bridge, and crashed forty feet below into the bottom of the creek before the rear coach had left the west abutments. This untimely, yet timely crash, was all that saved a number of passengers in the rear coach from being thrown to the bottom of the creek.

How the Gases are Burned in Buck's Hot Blast.

Note the upper draft in this stove where the fire pot is supplied with heated air instead of through the lower drafts (the open one) used in most heaters.

That's how the gases are mixed with oxygen directly over the fire. The gases do not escape on the flue.

We also handle the great 20th Century Heater. The Buck's and 20th Century Heaters are the two best made—don't buy until you see this line.
